PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

This brings to a close the twenty-third year in the history of Central States Numismatic Society and also the close on my two year term as President. These past two years have been filled with great pleasure in the close association I have had with a great number of you. I would have liked nothing better than to have greeted each of you at the conventions and talk personally with you about your collections, but such has not been the case. I take this means of personally inviting you to continue your membership in CSNS and make the organization even stronger during the years to come. We are already recognized as one of the greatest in the nation.

This has been a term that I will never forget and I would like to take this opportunity to thank the officers and governors along with the many committees and other members who have helped me with their experiences and ideas. I realize that I have made mistakes during these two years, but let me assure you that they were mistakes of the head and not of the heart, for I would not intentionally try to lower the standards of this organization. I have the greatest respect and admiration for every member and those with whom I have differed on opinion.

It's a little hard for me to be writing this message. I don't know whether you want me to talk about coins, club activities or the past two years. Having been honored to serve as your President this last tenure it leaves me with mixed emotions. Right now I feel sad, and happy. Sad only because of the many things I know need to be done and perhaps the feeling is because I'm leaving them undone. Happy to know that Central States Numismatic Society has grown these past two years and looked upon as one of the nation's leading numismatic groups. Its conventions are second only to the American Numismatic Association's. The treasury has grown, the competition is keener for the displays at the conventions and the crowds larger. This year in Milwaukee the educational theme is to be given a great amount of time and I'm sure the visitors appreciate such offerings. More individual clubs over the central area are now corporate members than ever before. How can we lose if we keep this interest and feel the need for our growth? I'm sure that my successor and his team are very capable and I'm pleased because I feel that the Central States Numismatic Society will continue to be among the leaders in the field of organized numismatics.

During my tenure I was most happy to have had such a capable group of officers and governors to work along all the lines of my ideas and plans. Of these members and officers and others that I have called upon to serve the organization in any capacity, whether it be one of prominence and prestige, or one of menial task, I can only say that "I appreciate all you have done." I thank all of you for the honor you have accorded me and wish for all of you the very best of "finds" possible. See you in Milwaukee!!!

—RAY O. LEFMAN, President

MEDALS

Special medals to commemorate the CSNS Twentieth annual convention are being struck in four metals (copper, aluminum, bronze and silver), depicting "Old Abe" the famous Wisconsin Civil War eagle on one side—the other side is an outline of Wisconsin with the date 1962 and MILWAUKEE inscribed at its proper location. In a circle around the outside are the words — CENTRAL STATES NUMISMATIC SOCIETY.

The copper, aluminum and bronze medals are $4.50 for the three, the silver for $6.50, or the complete set of four for $10.00, postpaid. The story of Old Abe will be included with each set. Send check or money order to: A. P. Bertschy, Medals Chairman, P.O. Box 5495, Milwaukee 11, Wis. Wisconsin residents please add 3% tax.

CSNS 1962 MILWAUKEE CONVENTION

The following, in capsule size, recites the many reasons why the Committee feels that you will greatly enjoy the 1962 Convention:

EXHIBITS: Three sections: Competitive—3 cases or its equivalent; Noncompetitive; Invitational.

BOURSE: Entire seventh floor of the hotel reserved for over one hundred dealers including Canadian dealers. Police protection as well as a security room.

AUCTION: Three sessions held by James Kelly, well known coin auctioneer, with one section devoted mainly to Canadian coins and currency.

BANQUET: Dinner at the Milwaukee Athletic Club on Saturday night when the awards will be announced. Plenty of time to get back to trading or buying. Medals for first, second and third places presented on Sunday noon.

EDUCATION: Educational program includes lectures by qualified numismatists with a question and answer period. School children accompanied by their teachers, are invited to tour the exhibits.

LADIES: A planned tour of the city and lake front, with lunch at a fine suburban restaurant. Lounges have been set aside for your comfort.

Be sure to make your hotel reservations early, as we expect a wonderful turnout for this convention! See you in Milwaukee!

—E. C. GERBER, Gen. Chairman

CSNS 1962 CONVENTION EXHIBIT RULES

1. Anyone who is a CSNS member may exhibit and compete for prizes.
2. Applications for cases stating number required (limit 3) must be in the hands of Exhibit Chairman, A. P. Bertschy, P.O. Box 5495, Milwaukee 11, Wis., not later than April 16th. If you wish, you may bring your own cases. Space and cases will be assigned in the order of receipt of application on a first come, first served basis.
3. All exhibits to be eligible for an award must be on display not later than 2:00 P.M. Friday, May 4th, and remain on display until 12:00 noon Sunday, May 6th.
4. No one may exhibit in more than one classification.
5. Medals will be awarded for first, second and third place winners.
6. Best in Show will be awarded to one of the first place winners who has not won that award before in CSNS competition.
7. Decision of the judges will be final. The judging will be made on the basis of the point system as outlined below:

	Maximum Points
Numismatic information conveyed to the viewer	30
Arrangement, neatness, and eye-appeal	30
Originality of exhibit	15
Comparative completeness of material exhibited	15
Comparative condition of material exhibited	5
Rarity and/or value of material exhibited	5
Maximum total points	100

FROM YOUR SECRETARY

This will be my last message as your Secretary. I have served under three different Presidents, each a grand fellow with whom to work, and in the five years Central States Numismatic Society has grown in membership and stature as a numismatic organization second only to the A.N.A. I have enjoyed being a part of this growth, and it will now be my privilege for the next two years to try to fill some "big shoes" creditably. I can do this only with your help.

I have enjoyed serving you as Secretary, even in the exasperating moments that are bound to occur in such a position. Would you like to know the hardest part of being your Secretary? Answer—keeping track of your addresses. We have published the CENTINEL four times this last year and each mailing results in many returned copies, because of the same old, old story—members neglect to inform the Secretary of their new address. To make matters worse the new postal regulations place the matter right back on the public where it belongs; in this case, I am the public. On every CENTINEL returned I pay 8c to get your new address; two mailings now total 6c plus the 8c above mentioned and your Society has now paid 14c to get one issue of the CENTINEL to you. The headache grows. If your CENTINEL comes back with no new address on it, in the wastebasket it goes at the P.O. and you receive none. I do not know it until a year, two years or so later you write me and you are very much upset, you "have received no CENTINEL for a long time," so you resign.

All this may seem like a very small matter, but it creates a lot of friction and much hard feeling every year towards our Society and oft times towards the Secretary personally. So I make one last supreme effort and beg of you, if you move, please inform our new Secretary, Paul Olson, and do your part to lessen his work on this one item. I hope to see you all in Milwaukee where a grand convention is shaping up under the able direction of Past President Erv Gerber.
